

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND CATTLE PRODUCERS NOTICE OF ELECTION

Elections are underway to fill two positions on the Prince Edward Island Cattle Producers Board. The mail-in ballot process, previously delayed by the Canada Post strike, is now ready to proceed for terms beginning in 2026.

Vacant Positions:

- At-Large Representative (3-year term)
Greg Stavert has completed two consecutive terms and is not eligible for reappointment.
- King's County Representative (3-year term)
Currently vacant and open to eligible cattle producers from King's County.

To be eligible for election, a producer willing to serve on the Board must:

1. Be registered with the Board on November 30, 2025.
2. Be nominated by five producers who are eligible to nominate the producer.
3. Have delivered to the Returning Officer or have mailed not later than the last day of November 2025, a properly completed nomination form.
4. Indicate a willingness to serve by signing the nomination form.

To be eligible to vote in the election, a producer must be registered with the Prince Edward Island Cattle Producers on November 30.

Nomination forms are available from the Prince Edward Island Cattle Producers website www.peicattleproducers.com or from Marketing Council, Suite 216, Farm Centre, 420 University Avenue, Charlottetown, P.E. C1A 7Z5; Tel: 902-569-7575.

Nomination forms, containing original signatures, must be delivered or mailed to: Karrie Boswall, Returning Officer, Prince Edward Island Cattle Producers Elections, Suite 216, Farm Centre, 420 University Ave. Charlottetown, P.E. C1A 7Z5 no later than November 30, 2025.